Mission

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, and research.

The Cedar Falls Branch of AAUW founded in 1925 has more than 100 members. It is currently the second largest branch in Iowa.

Membership is open to all graduates with an Associate (or equivalent), Baccalaureate, or higher degree and to students enrolled in an accredited college or university. For membership information contact Deloris Lynch, Vice President for Membership, at 266-3747.

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks diversity. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class.

Community Action Projects

Discuss and Discover Diversity

Join lively and interesting book discussions about diverse populations. Guest facilitators have special expertise in the areas of discussion.

Project Chairs: Judy Beckman, Mary Dove

International Friendship Program

Share intercultural exchange, understanding, and friendship with international students. This partnership program between AAUW-CF and UNI has been in existence for 44 years.

Project Chair: Pramod Sarin

Iowa Radio Reading Information Service (IRIS)

Read the Waterloo-Cedar Falls Courier on the radio for the blind, visually impaired, and print-handicapped in the Cedar Valley. UNI KHKE-FM is the satellite location for this program.

Project Chair: Barb Cardamon

Books for Incarcerated Women

New and gently used books are donated to the women's unit of the Black Hawk County Jail as part of our mission to advance education for women.

Project Chair: Maureen White, Judy Beckman, Dee Lynch

Gender Equity

A Gender Balance Coalition led by the Cedar Falls branch which educated community members about legislation requiring gender balance on appointed city and county boards and commissions and works with mayors and county boards of supervisors.

Project Chairs: Maureen White, Jane Close

Promoting Global Awareness

Discuss issues of international importance using the Great Decisions program. Discussions are held at the Cedar Falls Public Library on the third Tuesday evening of the month. This program is co-sponsored by the Cedar Valley United Nations Association.

Project Chairs: Gloria Tollefson, Marcia Street

Support a Student

Support Jacqueline Ingabire, senior UNI student and Rwandan refugee, as she moves forward toward United States citizenship. Learn along with Jacque as she goes through the process, of which the first step is applying for her green card.

Project Chairs: Mary Dove, Judy Beckman

Opportunities to Participate

Bridge for Education

Play bridge while contributing to education each time you pay your $2 donation and play. Two games are played each month: the third Wednesday at 11:30, and the fourth Tuesday at 12:30 in a member's home.

Contact: Dargy Baxter

International Studies

Participate in a Great Decisions monthly discussion on a current global issue to learn about complex issues important to your knowledge of international affairs. Members of the group rotate the role of discussion leader. This group meets the third Mondays at 1:15 p.m. in members' homes.

Contact: Lois Crowley / Kathy Agness

Literature

Discover books other group members have read. Members select titles they find personally interesting and think others may also enjoy. This group meets the third Mondays at 1:15 p.m. in members' homes.

Contact: Jean Kelly

Women in Motion

Participate in service projects, activities and community events that provide some degree of physical activity. Dates, time, and locations vary depending upon the activity.
