

What recruiters say...

"Each year Target Stores is very excited when it comes to Career Fair time at the University of Northern Iowa. UNI Academic Advising & Career Services goes above and beyond to ensure a great partnership between employers and students at the University. The event is very well organized and promoted which ensures a wide variety of students with diverse backgrounds will be in attendance at the event. As an alumni from UNI, I look forward to speaking to the talented students graduating from UNI every year."

*Crystal Pedersen
Campus Recruiter, Target Stores*

"We look forward to participating in the UNI Career Fair each year. The students are well prepared for the event. They are dressed professionally and are ready to share information about their education and background. The fair is well organized and promoted allowing employers to speak to a number of students with various backgrounds. We feel attending the fair is a good investment of our time. It allows us to share information about our organization and interact with some top-notch students."

*Therese Murphy
Employment Representative
Federated Insurance*

Come to the Fair!

You are invited to join us at the 26th annual UNI Career Fair on Monday, September 18, 2006. This "information fair" is open to all students and alumni. Typically there are over 1300 attendees at this event. You will have an opportunity to visit with or interview undergraduates, graduate students, and alumni about career possibilities and Cooperative Education/Internships.

Participate in the UNI Interview Day!

If you wish to interview UNI students/alumni on campus during the week of September 18-22, we invite you to join us for the UNI Interview Day on Tuesday, September 19. You will be responsible for signing up candidates during the Career Fair. This will be the only on-campus interviewing opportunity during the week of the Career Fair. Please note in the enclosed Recruitment Notes that on-campus recruiting begins September 25.

Your confirmation will include directions for parking on campus and further information about the Career Fair and the Interview Day. We look forward to working with you!
