

Contents

|                 |   |     |
|-----------------|---|-----|
|                 | Preface to the Second Edition                                 | ix  |
|                 | The Authors   | xi  |
| Chapter 1       | Introduction  | 1   |
| PART ONE | GRADING IN THE CLASSROOM                               |     |
| Chapter 2       | Clarifying Goals, Constructing Assignments                    | 7   |
| Chapter 3       | Fostering Healthy Student Motivation                          | 25  |
| Chapter 4       | Establishing Criteria and Standards for Grading               | 35  |
| Chapter 5       | Linking Teaching, Learning, and Grading                       | 61  |
| Chapter 6       | Managing Time for Teaching, Learning, and Responding          | 79  |
| Chapter 7       | Making Grading More Time-Efficient                            | 99  |
| Chapter 8       | Calculating Course Grades                                     | 113 |
| Chapter 9       | Communicating with Students About Their Grades                | 125 |
| Chapter 10      | Using the Grading Process to Improve Teaching                 | 141 |
| PART TWO | HOW GRADING SERVES BROADER ASSESSMENT PURPOSES         |     |
| Chapter 11      | Assessment for Departments and General Education              | 151 |
| Chapter 12      | Case Studies of Departmental and General Education Assessment | 173 |
| Chapter 13      | Assessment for Grant Proposals                                | 187 |
| Appendix A:     | Examples of Rubrics   | 195 |
| Appendix B:     | Example of Departmental Assessment Report                     | 233 |
|                 | References  | 237 |
|                 | Index   | 249 |