

CURRICULUM VITAE

Ralph Scott
Department of Educational Psychology and Foundations
University of Northern Iowa
Cedar Falls, Iowa 50614-0607
Phone (319) 273 3376
e-mail: ralph.scott@uni.edu

Home Address
1515 Columbia Drive
Cedar Falls, IA 50613

EDUCATION

1950: B.A. Luther College
1953: M.S.W. University of Wisconsin, Madison
Psychiatric Social Work
1964: Ph.D. University of Chicago, Specialization in School and Educational Psychology

ACADEMIC AWARDS AND GRANTS

2000 Graduate College, $400 award to present paper at VIIIth Conference, Social Justice and Social Exclusion
2000 Graduate College, $400 award to present paper Midwinter Meeting, Society for Ireland Personality Assessment
2000 Graduate College, $400 award, "Danish treatment of World War II German refugees: A Psychoanalytic Study"
1999 Graduate College, $400 award to present paper at International Conference, Psychology and Law
1998 Graduate College, $400 award, "The Flynn Effect: Are aptitude profiles changing?"
1998 Graduate College, $400 award to present paper, and also a poster paper at 6th International Conference on Work Values and Behaviors
1997 Graduate College, $400 award to present paper at Congreso Regionale de Psicologia Para Professionals in America

POSITIONS HELD

1965 to present University of Northern Iowa, Department of Educational Psychology and Foundations, Professor

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

1995 to present Taught courses at University of Northern

200:139 Psychology of Personality; 200:176 Learning and Behavioral Problems; 200:230 Theories of Personality;
200:291 Internship in School Psychology; 200:173 Behavior Disorders of Children; 200:290 Practicum in Education and Psychology; 250:284 Advanced Psychodiagnostics; 200:282 Individual Intellectual Assessment; 200:299 Research

SERVICE ACTIVITIES

1995 to present Member, School Psychology Committee
Committee to Select UNI's Outstanding Teachers, 1998

Expert witness in disability and child custody cases
Medical Consultant, U.S. Social Security Administration
Psychological Examiner, Iowa Disability Determination Service Bureau

RECENT PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Recent Presentations

“Predictive validity of aptitude tests on later student achievement.” Seventh European Conference on Development Psychology. Krakow, Poland: August 25, 1995.

With Kurt, N., & Stevens, M. “Curricular strategies: Should aptitude and biological factors be considered?” Annual Conference, Iowa Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development and Iowa Technology and Education Connection. Ames, IA: October 15, 1996.

“Mainstreaming or some degree of tracking: Examining the arguments and the data.” Congreso Regional de Psicología para Profesionales in America. Mexico City: July 29, 1997.

“Diversified students needs and standardized testing: Core of a curricular crises?” Annual Conference, Iowa Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development and Iowa Technology and Education Connection. Ames, IA: October 13, 1997.

“Peter’s Scales: Pictorial Evaluators of Test Reactions” Panel Presentations proposal submitted to American Psychological Association, Turkey: July 12, 1998.

“Human Resource Management: More effective if assessment examines both aptitude and memory functions?” Panel presentation, 6th International Conference on Work Values and Behaviors, Istanbul, Turkey: July 14, 1998.

“Assessment of traumatic brain injury.” Paper presented at the 6th International Conference on Work Values and Behaviors. Istanbul, Turkey: July 15, 1998.

“Ideographic considerations: Critical to MMPI-2 interpretations?” Midwinter Conference, Society for Personality Assessment. New Orleans, LA: March 25, 1999.

“Employing Rorschach’s Test to facilitate voluntary child custody stipulation: One case vignette.” International Conference, Psychology and Law. Dublin, Ireland: July 7, 1999.

“Forensic Assessment: Resolving child custody disputes: Can the Rorschach contribute?” Midwinter Meeting, Society for Personality Assessment. Albuquerque, NM: Hilton Regent, March 25, 2000.

“Has Justitia become outdated?” Paper presented at VIII Conference, Social Justice and Social Exclusion, College of Management. Rishon LeZion, Israel. September 18, 2000.

Recent Publications

Sutil, C. R. & Ortiz, R. (1995). Academic learning problems and Rorschach indices a replication. Andes de Psicología, 1, 29-33.

With Sutil, C. R. & Takeuchi, M. (1996). Clarity and consistency of language. Easily overlooked variables in reporting research. Psychological Reports, 79, pp. 781-782.

With H. Bengston and P. Gao. "The Flynn Effect: Does it apply to academic achievement?" Mankind Quarterly, 34, (1), 1998, 109-118.

With Brian Poncy. "The Flynn Effect: How applicable to longitudinal IQ assessment of American university students?" Mankind Quarterly, 39(4), 385-397. Summer, 1999.

Review, The Rising Curve: Longterm Gains in IQ and Related Measures. Quarterly Review of Biology, 75(2), 171-172.

"When institutions fail: Can viable social policies then be formulated?" Mankind Quarterly, Vol. XL(4), 435-472. Summer 2000.