

- Each school would have one department head
- Each division (e.g., C&I) would have a division chair who would be a faculty member receiving released time but no extra compensation.
- This reorganization plan maximizes budgetary savings while minimizing the need for curricular changes or reassignment of faculty.