Note: If enrolling as a graduate student, you must request a verification of degree from each institution from which you have received a BA degree or higher, if the degree was obtained from an institution other than UNI. If you have previously attended UNI, verification of all degrees received since your last enrollment must also be requested. Requests can often be made in writing, by phone, by fax, by email, or by a web application through the institution. To be considered official, verifications or transcripts must be sent directly from the issuing institution to the UNI Office of the Registrar, 227 Gilchrist Hall, Cedar Falls, IA, 50614-0006 or faxed to 319-273-6792. Student-issued copies of personal transcripts or letters of verification are not acceptable. Failure to provide all necessary verifications will cause your classification to become undergraduate prior to your grades being posted.
