

Paint the Town Purple

Places to go and things to do at UNI and in the community 2006 – 2007

Compiled by Andrea Timp

“There’s nothing to do!”

No way! There are thousands of activities at UNI and in the Cedar Valley. This booklet is just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to fun and healthy (as long as you think skydiving is healthy) things to do when you’re not studying. So, next time you or a friend are bored, just pick a page and Paint the Town Purple!

Student Organizations

You 'belong' when you get involved in hall government, and/or one of the many student organizations of the UNI campus. Ask the great folks at the Student Activities Office (273-2683) to help find a group that is right for you. If you live in University Housing, your RA/CA can help you get involved right where you live, too.

The following student clubs and student organizations are registered with the Student Activities Office:
