

Women's History Month Resources

National Women's Hall Of Fame

<http://www.greatwomen.org/home.php>

The mission is "To honor in perpetuity these women, citizens of the United States of America whose contributions to the arts, athletics, business, education, government, the humanities, philanthropy and science, have been the greatest value for the development of their country."

The website gives an overview of the Hall of Fame as well as a listing with biographies of the 195 members. This might be a great way for residents to become familiar with a not-so-famous woman who has made an impact.

US Census Bureau

<http://www.census.gov/Press-Release/www/2003/cb03ff03.html>

Facts & Figures of Women in the United States. Subjects include earnings, education, family, etc.

National Women's History Museum

<http://www.nmwh.org/home/home.html>

Under "Cyber Museum" there are resources such a timeline of Women's Suffrage and a quiz. In addition, there's an online tour of the museum that has some great information!

Resources from the Instructional Materials Center at the University of Missouri- Kansas City.

The Black Women at Virginia Tech History Project

<http://spec.lib.vt.edu/archives/blackwomen/>

This website gives biographies of some of the first black women students, staff, and faculty at Virginia Tech as well as transcripts of interviews with them.

Women in Vietnam

<http://www.salon.com/mwt/feature/1999/11/11/women/>

An article, including interviews, about women who served in Vietnam.

Women's Products Advertisements 1920-1950

http://scriptorium.lib.duke.edu/dynaweb/adaccess/beauty/@Generic_CollectionView

This could be a great, funny bulletin board idea. My favorites are definitely the "feminine hygiene" product ads from the 1920s! Some of the text is hard to read when printed, but they're pretty interesting.

The 2004 National Women's History Month Honorees
