

Apartments

All apartments in ROTH are double bedrooms, which means each room houses two people. These living spaces are designed for residents of the same gender. Residents must be enrolled for an entire academic year to live in a ROTH apartment.

One Bedroom - houses two people	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Two bedroom - houses four people	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Three bedrooms - six people and two levels	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Suites

Suites can be contracted for a semester or a year. Each suite is designed for a maximum occupancy of 12 people, with rooms available to single or double occupancy. Each wing of the apartment houses the same gender, but the entire suite may be co-ed. Suites include four bathrooms, two in each wing. The shared kitchen has a sink, garbage disposal, two microwaves, two stoves, and two refrigerators.

ROTH Apartment

Source URL: <http://www.uni.edu/dor/housing/layout-options>