Frequently asked questions

Who may use the uCard?

Any currently enrolled student, faculty or staff member at the University of Northern Iowa may use their uCard for identification purposes, access to facilities and services, and paying for purchases. For your protection, only you can use your uCard; it is not transferable.

What happens if I lose my uCard?

Report your uCard lost or stolen online by accessing "My Personal Records" on your "My UNiverse" account. You will be held responsible for any purchases made with your uCard until the card is reported lost or stolen. You can print a lost card voucher to enable you to eat meals in the dining center if you have a meal plan. For your protection, lost card vouchers may not be used for credit or Dining Dollar purchases.

Card re-activation and obtaining a new card can be done at the Department of Residence, Redeker Center, during normal business hours. If you do not find your card, you will need to purchase a replacement card for $25. This fee can be applied to your university bill. You must bring a photo ID with you to obtain a new card.

Cards that have been found and replaced cannot be reactivated.

What are Dining Dollars?

Dining Dollars are dollars to use toward any food and beverage purchase at various locations on campus. Your uCard is needed to access Dining Dollars. Dining Dollars can be used at all dining locations on campus. Dining Dollars are not transferable, saleable or refundable. Additional Dining Dollars may be added to your account: www.uni.edu/dor

Dining Dollar balances are available online or by asking a cashier in a dining operation. Dining Dollar balances left at the end of the fall semester will carry over to spring semester. Dining Dollar balances left at the end of the spring semester will not carry over or be refunded.

Can I have Dining Dollars even though I don't have a meal plan?

Yes, you may purchase Dining Dollars online (www.uni.edu/dor using MyUNiverse) and at the Department of Residence office. Dining Dollars will be charged to the university bill.

How does charging with the uCard work?

The uCard operates like a credit card. As you use your uCard to charge purchases, your university bill balance increases.

How do I open a charge account?

Your account is pre-approved for credit and active from the moment you become a UNI student, staff or faculty member. Simply tell the cashier that you want to charge your purchase. Each week your charge amount will be transferred to your university bill. Faculty and staff will have charges deducted monthly from their paychecks.

How do I know how much I've charged?

You can access your university bill online through MyUNiverse. uCard charges are applied to university bills weekly.

What percent of interest is charged for this service?

There is no finance charge for specific purchases. However, there is a $20 per semester administrative fee ($15/summer) for deferred monthly billing if you choose to pay your tuition and housing expenses over the course of the semester.

Can my uCard be used for charging off campus?

At this time, the uCard may be used at selected on-campus locations only.

What if I have additional questions?

Stop in or call the Department of Residence at 273-2333. We are here to answer questions, respond to comments and to serve you!
