

The PRAIRIE ROSE MIDDLE EASTERN DANCE TROUPE invites you to

Deliciously Dark Fusion Combos

Workshop and Show with Ami Amoré
Saturday, April 30, 2011

University of Northern Iowa Wellness/Rec Center
Cedar Falls, IA

Ready for something out of the ordinary? Come take a walk on the dark side with Ami Amoré. You will learn some creepy, dark and exquisite moves to add to your dance repertoire, revealing the inner prowess and gothess that resides in every dancer. We will then put them all together into some short combinations that can be strung together or mixed and matched. Students who provide email address will receive notes after the workshop. Black lipstick optional!

Ami Amore' has been bellydancing since 1999, beginning with Aalim Dance Co. and then in 2006, co-forming Chuvani Bellydance. She began doing Tribal Fusion in 2006 after seeing a Bellydance Superstars show in St. Louis. Although an experienced teacher herself, she continues her bellydance education through taking workshops around the country, because she believes she has something she can learn from everyone. Her style ranges from fusion and cabaret to hip hop to goth and Asian with a dash of sass, theatrics, fire, and carnival thrown in for good measure. Ami danced onstage with Beats Antique in St. Louis, October 2009 and was the featured dancer on the cover of Jareeda Magazine's May/June 2010 issue. She started her troupe, Exotic Rhythms Bellydance (aka ERBD) in 2006.
