

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2011 CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

7:15	REGISTRATION—COFFEE AND ROLLS, EXHIBIT AREA
8:00	Teaching About Japan's Rise to Power: A Visual Approach	Simulations to Stimulate Student Learning	Integrated Social Studies Teacher Preparation: Why Don't We Do It in the Field?	Iowa Folklife Curriculum, Volume 2	Potpourri: 37 Years of Elementary Teaching	We Shall Overcome: Music of the Civil Rights Movement as a Case Study in Artistic Primary Sources	Common Curriculum: Window into a Regional Curriculum
9:00	GENERAL SESSION: Social Studies Education in Iowa Dr. Jason Glass, Director, The Iowa Department of Education
9:45	Visit the Exhibitors
10:15	Japan Today: Updates and Resources	Bringing Historical Thinking to the Classroom	Iowa Public Television: Digital Social Studies Resources for Iowa's 21 st Century Learners	Connecting Service Learning with the Iowa Core Characteristics of Effective Instruction	Will this be on the Test?	POSTER SESSIONS: Travel & Study Opportunities at Home and Abroad
11:15	PLENARY SESSION: The State of Iowa Social Studies Education Dr. Greg Hamot, The University of Iowa
12:00	LUNCH & AWARDS
12:50	Visit the Exhibitors
1:10	Job-Alike Session Geography	Job-Alike Session World History	Job-Alike Session Elementary Social Studies	Job-Alike Session Behavioral Sciences	Job-Alike Session U.S. History	Job-Alike Session Civics/Economics	Job-Alike Session S.S. Methods Prof.
2:00	Using Inquiry to Teach about China in the Early Modern Period	Culture Kits – Understanding Diverse Peoples and Places	Using Prezi and Slide Rocket to Write Social Studies Summaries	Equity and Access: AP World History for All Students	7 Billion and Counting: Lessons for Our Planet's Future	Creating Graphic Novels: Literacy Infused Social Studies Instruction	Rural Settlement History of Iowa: Shaped by Railroads and a System of Rural Schools
3:00	Prize Drawing
3:30	Annual Business Meeting

