

ISO E-NEWSLETTER

University of Northern Iowa

November 2005

!!!Thanksgiving!!!

Up Coming events

International Education Week Nov. 14-18

To celebrate the important contributions of international education and exchange to the community and the nation, UNI is joining universities nationwide in commemorating International Education Week. UNI students, faculty, staff, and the community are invited to attend events, meet new people, and learn about international activities and resources on UNI campus. For more info. about the daily events visit us at: www.uni.edu/studyabroad/news/IEW2005.asp. You are invited to celebrate the great event! ISO Reception and celebration will be started @ 3pm, Nov. 17.

ISA Activities

The International Student Association will host different workshops throughout Wednesday November 16th, at the Maucker Union. Check out these workshops!!!

5:00 - 6:00 : SIAC Conference Room
Presentation on Italy and Italian language lessons

5:30 - 6:00 : College Eye Room
Arabic language lessons

6:00 - 6:30 : College Eye Room
Korean language lessons

Thanksgiving Break

No Class! No Class!! No Class!!!

Thanksgiving vacation begins at 10 pm, Tuesday, November 22. Classes resume on Monday, November 28.

Would you like to know more about the Thanksgiving Holiday and its meaning for North Americans? Check out these sites: <http://www.holidays.net/thanksgiving/>
<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Thanksgiving>

Happy Thanksgiving!

ISA Activities (Cont'd)

6:00 - 7:00 : Hemisphere Lounge
Capoeira (dance/martial arts) lessons

7:00 - 8:00 : Bartlett Hall Recreation Room
Sushi cooking lessons

Tickets: $5. Pays for two rolls of sushi and a bamboo mat. Limited to 25 people.

Contact Rak at rakshith@uni.edu for tickets.

International Students Night @ UNI Basketball Game

When: 6:05 pm, Saturday, Dec. 3

Where: the Dome

Come cheer the Panthers & represent the international students! For more info contact Josey at majospa@uni.edu.

When: Friday, December 9, 6:00 p.m.

Where: Maucker Union Ballroom

What: Celebrate the holidays & the end of the semester with your fellow international students. (RSVP and tickets required).

For more information, please contact the ISO at 273-6421.

Announcement

Gilchrist Hall is closed for clean-up from the Oct. 16 fire. The Follon Student Services Center general information desk and basic student services, including admissions, financial aid, cashier, bill payment, registrar, academic advising and career services have been temporarily relocated to the second floor of Maucker Union. For a list of temporary office locations and phone numbers, see <http://www.uni.edu/pubrel/giloffice.shtml>.