Rehearsals

Tuesdays & Thursdays: 1-2:50 pm in RSL-111

Students should plan to arrive in time to be warmed up and ready to start at the assigned time. Each member of the ensemble will be responsible for music, pencils and appropriate doubles and mutes.

Sectionals

Once a program has been selected, weekly sectionals are expected to occur up to the concert date. Normally all sectionals will be run by designated section leaders. Make sure you have phone numbers of section mates (in the event that you are not able to attend). Unless otherwise indicated, all evening performances begin at 7:30 pm. Times for sound checks will be announced. Concert dress: coat & tie, dark shoes and socks, for men; something appropriate for women. Consult with the director if you have questions.

Grading

Students who are present for all rehearsals & sectionals at the designated times, and who have properly prepared all assigned parts can expect to receive a grade of "A" at the close of the semester. Reasons for lowering grades will include unexcused tardiness, absences, and/or inadequate preparation of parts. Abuse of any of these areas will result in dismissal from the ensemble. In such cases, a grade of "F" will be assigned. Reasons for absence are limited to severe illness, previously scheduled UNI music ensemble obligations, or family crises. NOTE: It is the continuing policy of the School of Music that all rehearsals and performances of UNI ensembles take precedence over all activities scheduled outside the university. Moreover, no other university class or ensemble will take precedence over the scheduled rehearsals and performances of this ensemble without permission from the director two weeks in advance. University policy prohibits harassment of any kind: failure to treat one another respectfully will lead to immediate dismissal.

Lost Parts/Folders: Any student who loses his/her music folder will be responsible for replacing ALL missing parts at his/her expense. In the event that a missing folder is turned in by someone else, the student must pay a fine of $20 to have the folder returned.
