

To allow me to check your book reports for plagiarism and citation problems, you will need to do the following:

Navigate to <http://www.turnitin.com>

In the upper right hand corner under the email box, click on “new user”

Scroll down to where it says “new students start here”

Click on #2 “create a user profile”

If you have ever used Turnitin for another course, follow the instructions in the left hand box.

If this is your first time, click on ‘student’ in the right hand box

Fill out the form.

If you are in Motivation & Emotion, your class id is: 3843297, and your class enrollment password is mespring12

If you are in Psychology & Law, your class id is: 3843673, and your class enrollment password is psylawspr12

Fill out the rest of the form.

Follow any remaining instructions.

When you are ready to submit your book analysis, you will save your word file as your last name, and then upload. All formatting will be lost with this version. You MUST turn in a normally formatted hard copy of your book report to me on the day it is due. THIS is how your book analysis is counted as being turned in on time. If I have any questions or concerns about the report that Turnitin generates, I will contact you for a meeting.
