ROBERT'S RULES

We have two big events coming up in February: Valentine bun sales and the Banquet. It is important that we tailor our sales to our delivery capability; which means, those who sell have to consider how they will be delivered. Some of you can probably sell and deliver to employees of a specific location. Others, like myself, will have a customer list that you know you can accommodate. Last year we set a goal of 100 sales which we exceeded; perhaps we can improve on that this year. The banquet is the one event of the year when nearly everyone can attend. And it is especially important that we have a good turnout this year. I say this because we are honoring a lady who, more than anyone I know, has translated her own victory over breast cancer into a campaign to assist others faced with this terrifying affliction. And, of course, we will have some fun -- perhaps make some improbable awards to deserving -- though unsuspecting -- members. I will soon celebrate my 78th birthday attending a granddaughter's wedding in Pennsylvania -- and look forward to our first 2007 meeting on the 2nd Tuesday in January.

BOARD ACTION and BUSINESS MEETING

It was decided that we will put a hold on the free meal deal for this next quarter so we will have funds available to mail membership solicitation letters to all our flag customers. We're talking about having a free dinner at the Piazza (UNI campus) as a promotion to get word out about our club and the need for new members in order to expand the flag project from the current six neighborhoods.

David Greene and David Voigts are willing to give some after-school hours to the ECHOS program to help promote and build the solar race cars. Donna will turn their names in and contact information because they might need to go through back-ground checks.

Remember to save the last Sunday in February for our banquet.

We're considering using a big chunk of our sponsorship money for student scholarships at UNI in the speech and hearing program.

Jessica Williams has resigned her membership in Sertoma. She will join a Marshalltown club of some kind and will occasionally visit us. We'll miss you Jessica. Please keep in touch.

Please submit newsletter articles to Editor Donna Brown at gbrown@asi-gis.com.

Note: to save on postage this newsletter will come via e-mail to those who have it. Hard copies will be available at Tuesday's meeting.
