

ANNUAL REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL LINKAGES AND STUDY ABROAD
UNI Term	Last Name	First Name	Middle Name	UNI ID	Credits	No. of Weeks	Country	City	Program Name OR Host Institution (if exchange)
Summer 2002									UNI Institute in St. Petersburg
Fall 2002									Camp Adventure
Spring 2003									Student Teaching
May Term 2003									Greek Study Abroad
									Regents Semester in Ireland
									University of Hull Exchange
									UNISSIS
									etc.
GUIDELINES
Reporting Period: June 1, 2002-May 31, 2003
Reporting year begins with June 1, 2002 and ends with May 31, 2003 and will include the following UNI semesters:
Summer 2002, Fall 2002, Spring 2003, May Term 2003 (May 20-June 6).
The UNI May Term dates are May 20-June 6, 2003.
Who Should be Included:
UNI students who received credit for academic coursework completed abroad regardless of the institution that issued the credit.
Students who participated in more than one program should be reported as a participant in each program.
Non-UNI students are enrolled as a degree-seeking student at another institution and transfer credits earned in the program back to the home institution
Number of Weeks - Duration
Participant who studied abroad during fall or spring semesters and spent less than 10 weeks abroad will be counted in the "short-term" category.
Participant who studied abroad during the fall and spring semesters on the same program will be counted in the "academic year" category.									