

- Registration opens in January and runs through mid-March. If space is available, smaller groups may be scheduled later than March.
- Use the group registration form to submit conference dates, group size, housing needs, registration times, etc.
- Once the group registration form is submitted, a contract will be mailed to sign and return. Your signature indicates your agreement to comply with our housing guidelines.
- Upon completion of the contract, space is reserved and the Department of Residence prepares for the arrival of your group.
- The room includes room keys, bed linens, towels, soap and a cup. Washcloths and blankets are available in the hall office at no charge. Guests in the traditional halls share a restroom and shower rooms. The restrooms are cleaned daily.
- For special accommodations, please contact the Summer Conference Coordinator.
- The central conference office is located in Noehren Hall and is open to meet guests' needs for information and access to services.
- The residence hall check-in period should not exceed one hour; organized group activities should begin within 30 minutes of the scheduled end of registration.
- Following check-in, UNI conference services will present a camp welcome and safety overview that needs to be planned as part of the group's first day agenda (approx. 10 minutes).
- Chaperone background checks must be completed and submitted to the Department of Residence prior to the group's first day on campus.
